

For Immediate Release:

Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Greater Dubuque, Iowa Employees

(Dubuque) Mark Lansing has been promoted to branch manager at Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Greater Dubuque. Lansing oversees the Dubuque branch of Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Northeastern Iowa. The branch's main office is located in Waterloo. Lansing has background in retail management, financial services and community service.

Bob Buss has been hired as community relations director for the Dubuque CCCS office. He will build strong relationships between the office and leaders in the community to spread the mission of sound financial management.

Ann Savage, counselor and customer service representative, was recently hired to work in the CCCS Greater Dubuque office. She is working in customer service and is studying to become a certified credit counselor. CCCS of Greater Dubuque is an accredited agency with certified counselors.

CCCS of Greater Dubuque helps people manage their money more effectively by helping them get out of debt. The branch is also approved to provide bankruptcy counseling and education under the federal bankruptcy law. For more information, go to www.cccsia.org.

###

